On Rota, Iijima-Martin led from start to finish. She dealt with four dips in the road twice on the 20-kilometer bike ride and on the run, there were up and Manami Iijima-Martin captured Guam's first medal of the Northern Mariana Islands Pacific Mini Games 2022. She took first in the women's triathlon — a sprint distance of a 750 meter swim, 20 kilometer bike and 5k run. The event was held on June 20, 2022 in Rota.

on the swim but I felt pretty good. The bike and run were okay; I think I held my gap that I made. I felt comfortable on the second loop of the turn but I never let my guard down because you never know what can happen."

She said she felt relief and yelled, "We did it!" as loud as she could in her head. We, she said, mean her sponsors, close friends, family, her coach, the Guam Triathlon Federation and the Guam National Olympic Committee.

In the men's division, Ryan Matienzo finished eighth overall, with Mark Imazu right on his heels. John Carlo Baguyo finished 11th.

Va'a

Guam's Va'a women's team won a silver medal in the Open V12 500 event. Guam had finished about 13 seconds behind Papua New Guinea, but Papua New Guinea was disqualified in the event, moving Guam up to a silver finish and the Northern Marianas to a bronze finish. Tahiti won the gold.
