heats in sprints and hurdles to accommodate the numbers. Our throwers and jumpers again had a big turnout with over 10 athletes contesting in each of the different field events.”

With athletes looking to hone their skills for upcoming events, Mandell said the open meet offered the best opportunity.

“This meet also served as an opportunity for our Guam national team athletes as they prepare for the upcoming Oceania Athletics Championships in Australia and the Pacific Mini Games in the Northern Mariana Islands this summer,” he said.
