VI. ENTERTAIN GUESTS FROM OLD BUSINESS	A. Victoria Espaldon – Apprentice license <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Guest attending the Board meeting on behalf of Victoria Espaldon is her Father, James Espaldon. He will be attending to understand where V. Espaldon’s application is in the process.</li> <li>- There was a hold on her application because there was a Cease and Desist letter for her unauthorized practice of barbering and cosmetology that she did receive since then.</li> <li>- The Board received a response from her to the Cease and Desist that she will comply. So, after reviewing her folder and application for Apprentice license, she has been approved.</li> <li>- Although the approval is effective today, she must await receipt of her physical certification and license before practicing.</li> </ul> B. Runlian Xie – Cosmetologist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Guest attending the Board meeting on behalf of Runlian Xie is Bentley San Nicolas.</li> <li>- Mr. San Nicolas requested an update on the disposition of her application. The Board noted that the hours Ms. Xie submitted must be verified by and directly to HPLO by a third party entity, which is currently pending. The Board also noted that there were two documents submitted that shows 600 and 800 hours, respectively. Therefore, the third party assessment is necessary to validate the hours submitted. The Board noted that her application is conditionally approved pending the verification from the third party.</li> </ul>	GBBC	9:43	Approved
VII. HPL0 REPORT	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- GuamWebz won the bid to do all Board websites for HPL0. GuamWebz has done the OPA and Port Authority website. Louis Moreno - Barber <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- As discussed in the last Board meeting, this person applied for an apprentice license; however, he has been working with an apprentice license for over two years (2004). Board discussed their concern and need for clarification of this application. He has passed the practical test, however, has failed the written test multiple times. Since the cap is at two years working as an apprentice, he needs to reapply.</li> <li>- He is now doing a whole new application for an apprentice license, so this seems to solve the concerns. This will require a new process, a new number, etc.</li> </ul> D. Rules and Regulations – On-Going <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- This is the same document that was worked on with Senator Sheldon's office. It looks like it is based on California law, which is good; however, he has other suggestions for consideration.</li> <li>- It is really important for the GBBC Treasurer to have input on the fees in the Rules and Regulations.</li> <li>- Chairwoman attended a National Interstate Council of Cosmetology (NIC) meeting and has some good input for the Rules and Regulations document moving forward.</li> </ul> E. # Mickelson inspires Senior PGA field

Ken MacLeod
ASSOCIATED PRESS

TULSA, Okla. — From Ryder Cup captains past and present to former winners at Southern Hills, the Senior PGA Championship offers a mix of inspiration and motivation all because of one eligible player who chose not to join them.

Phil Mickelson will play on the PGA Tour at Colonial instead of one of the elite majors for the 50-and-older set.

Mickelson made history last week by winning the PGA Championship at 50 to become golf's oldest major champion and he got the attention of his peers.

Ryder Cup captain Steve Stricker,

Phil Mickelson hits from the seventh tee box during the third round of the PGA Championship on Saturday at Kiawah Island, S.C. Mickelson won the event to become golf's oldest major champion.

GEOFF BURKE/USA TODAY SPORTS

who made the cut last week at Kiawah Island, said it pushed the boundaries of what he imagined was possible. "I think he showed everybody that it's possible later on in your career," Stricker said. "We go from (2020 PGA champion) Collin Morikawa, one of the youngest players to win a major, to the oldest player in history to win a major. That's the cool and unique thing about the game of golf, and that's what's exciting. If you put the time in and you work hard at it, Phil showed us that we can continue to compete at that higher level."

Jim Furyk, the 2018 Ryder Cup captain and now an assistant to Stricker, said watching Mickelson negotiate the perils of Pete Dye's Ocean Course at Kiawah was a source of pride for all golfers over 50.

"I think all the guys on the Champions Tour have a pride in the quality of the product that we're putting out there and our abilities," Furyk said. "We don't hit the ball as far as we used to, but you look at the scores ... seems like 10, 12, 15, 16, 18 under wins every week, and a lot of times in a three-day tournament.

"To see a guy our age go out there and still compete against the kids and then not only that, win a major championship, create history and then do it on a golf course ... that's not a golf course I would expect a 50-year-old to win on."

Scott Verplank worked as an analyst for ESPN+ and saw much of Mickelson's work.

He ranked it with Jack Nicklaus winning the 1986 Masters and Tiger Woods' winning the 2019 Masters as among the greatest feats in golf that he has witnessed.

"I was covering his group and he was 3 over after 6," Verplank said. "And I'm sitting there like going, 'You know, this golf course is not going to fit Phil.' From that point on he just whipped everybody's butt and he played the best."

The field at the Senior PGA includes players who know how to navigate Southern Hills, though the renovation by architect Gil Hanse completed in 2019 has forced them to relearn the greens.

That starts with Retief Goosen, who won the 2001 U.S. Open at Southern Hills despite missing a 2-foot putt on the final hole that forced a Monday playoff with Mark Brooks, who had earlier three-putted the 18th.

Also in the field is Tom Lehman, who won the 1996 Tour Championship in dominating fashion, shooting 12 under to win by six over Brad Faxon and seven over Stricker, whom many consider a favorite this week.
