Banchero headlines Rising Stars

Associated Press

Paolo Banchero's rookie season will include a trip to NBA All-Star weekend.

The Orlando Magic forward and No. 1 pick in last year's draft was announced Tuesday as a participant in this year's Rising Stars Game, to be held in Salt Lake City on Feb. 17, two nights before the All-Star Game.

20.7 points-per-game average — may still be selected as an All-Star reserve. Those players will be revealed Thursday.

"Anytime you can get a chance to be a part of All-Star weekend, you can't say no," Banchero said. "Especially me, being a rookie, first year, never experienced it before, it's always been the dream to just be a part of that whether it was Rising Stars or as a reserve. I'm definitely excited to get there and just see what it's like."

Banchero is on pace to be the first rookie to average 20 points per game since Luka Doncic in 2018-19. He also is fourth among rookies in rebounds per game entering Tuesday and third among them in steals per game.
