to honor before every match.

"I pray to my grandma Trini before my fights. She is always there for me. It also makes me feel closer to my ancestors. I have so much support from others who are from the island," she said.

Tāsi is named after her grandmother Trinidad Cruz Reyes from Hāgat. Tāsi's full name is Tāsi-Trinidad Marley Boots.

Women's nationals

Just last week, Tāsi went 8-3 in the USA Wrestling Women's National Duals as part of Team Oregon. It is the premier girls-only team wrestling tournament in the country, featuring state all-star teams competing in freestyle and Greco-Roman styles. The event is a massive recruiting showcase for college coaches, as women's collegiate wrestling continues to grow rapidly.

Team Oregon went on to win the tournament as Tāsi's wins helped the cause. All her wins came via pins in less than a minute.

The busy part of her competition season is over. The one competition she has left is the Beach Wrestling State Championships in August on the Oregon Coast. It will be her first time competing at such an event, but mostly she wants to spend the summer putting more on muscle and working her technique.

The family thanks Tāsi's coaches Natasha Umemento and Austin and Jessica Lister, as well Alex Castro and Most Hated for sponsoring her.
