Though the running club had to get back into the logistics of organizing a marathon – receiving clearance from the mayors, the Guam Police Department and the Guam Fire Department – Hechanova and the group felt the effort was worth it.

“It was exciting for us ... being able to offer this and being able to see familiar faces we haven’t seen for a while,” Hechanova said.

Hechanova went on to thank Foremost for assisting the club at the event as well as other sponsors who were able to donate for the event’s raffle.

“Other than that ... it was just fun. It was really fun to see the community come out, and support the fact that they just want to get back to normal,” Hechanova said. “The running community is still strong on Guam ... and it was such a fun time to be with everybody.”

Running next

The Guam Running Club will be holding another marathon called the 2K and 5K Run-Walk for Autism late this month. For Autism Awareness Month, the run will be at 6:30 p.m. April 23 at the Paseo

De Susana. The event will be the club’s official 2K and 5K, which will include timing, categories and awards, said Hechanova. “We hope for more, and we’re going to keep pushing,” he said.

The club will also have the GRC perimeter relay that would have a group run around the southern loop of the island, which would be 48.6 miles according to Hechanova.

run seven innings.

The teams played an exciting, but scoreless first inning. In the top of the second, Southern came alive and shelled Gecko starter Jayain Duenas. Seven batters came up and all seven scored before Duenas got his first out on a strikeout.

GW answered quickly in the bottom with five runs, highlighted by Javen Pangelinan’s 2-RBI shot, followed by RBI hits by CJ Tenorio and Tedtaotao.

Southern sent the entire lineup to the plate in the third inning but could only muster three runs. They came all at once when Joven Terlaje hit a bases-clearing double to center field.

The Geckos looked to rally big when Tedtaotao had an RBI single, followed by Jace Gumataotao smacking a shot to the left to score two runs. Cruz killed the rally when he fielded a grounder, tagged the runner headed to second and tossed to first in time to finish the double play.

Southern’s first two batters went down quietly until Cruz took first on four balls, made it to third on a passed ball and scored on another passed ball. It would prove to be the winning run. GW mounted a final rally and got Rocki Mesa across the plate but left the tying and winning runs stranded. Dolphins catcher Tim Chaco also a team. This year, so many boys came out that we had to cut some.”

Coby Barnes, coach for the Geckos, said that while his boys played OK, Southern High brought it and took advantage of GW’s mistakes.

“It was a good game for both teams and now the boys know they have to work hard because they’ll be getting every team’s best when they play,” he said.

“That was a big accomplishment for the boys from the South,” said Fejeran. “For the past two years, Southern hasn’t had GW falls to 1-1.

Fejeran told his boys to stay grounded.

“The win of course brings up the morale and spirits but we still have lots of work to do. It’s still early in the season. We have to keep working hard. All the credit goes to the boys for their hard work,” said Fejeran. “Hats off to the Geckos, it was an awesome game.”
