"I think the services we did touched our hearts and made us feel a little more grateful for the things we have," said teammate Naiyah Taimanglo. "The children we played with and gave to were still the happiest kids on earth with the biggest smiles on their faces no matter their circumstances."

First time traveler and the boys team's oldest player Dylan Millon said that he also had a great time with the kids and that it's always a good feeling to see them have fun and smile.

Calabuso Barangay

The sounds of almost 30 kids ages 3-to-4 years old can get very hectic. However, the organized chaos on another day was perfect as the team had fun servicing youngsters at a daycare in the Calabuso Barangay. After taking a very long and bumpy two-mile jeepney ride into the valley in between mountains, the Guam team went into feeding duties almost immensely. They served pizza and jungle juice with a smile, the players witnessed nothing but joy from the kids and their respective parents' faces. When lunch was done, it was play time, where Håtsa players also donated bags filled with donated clothes for children and adults of the community.

"Being able to get our players to extend a helping hand or show a small gesture of kindness is what the Guam and Håtsa spirit is all about," said Quintanilla.

The team's co-captain Ursula Ziegler said she enjoyed the trip overall. "I learned to be more grateful of the things my parents have blessed me with in my life. This trip made our team grow closer and stronger, we made new bonds and memories that I'm sure we will never forget. I will never forget my time I spent there," Ziegler said.

Homecoming

While the teams are back home, the mission to do great on the court and outside the lines doesn't stop. Håtsa is back on the court polishing their skills while continuing to serve. The team has already done two Salvation Army Red Kettle Bell ringing and will be volunteering in the upcoming Santa's Toy Shop toy distribution. Throughout the holidays, giving back has always been one of the teams' non-volleyball goals.

"Our coaches keep us working hard on the volleyball court all the time," said Millon. "But at the same time, they always talk about giving back in any small or big way that we can."

Thank you

Håtsa and their coaches send a very sincere and heartfelt thank you to those who have contributed or supported in one way or another. Special thanks to Gov. Lou Leon Guerrero and Lt. Gov. Joshua Tenorio,
