Matanane wins Mr. Continental International 2019 pageant

Inspire Promotions and the Mister Guam organization have announced that Mister Guam 2018 second runner-up Jared Matanane participated in a week of activities competing against 28 young men as the island's representative in the Mr. Continental International male pageant, according to a news release from the Mister Guam organization.

The Grand Coronation Night for the contest was held Thursday at the Theatrino Promenade in Greenhills, San Juan City, Philippines. After placing in the top five, Matanane, who is new to this sort of competition, impressed the crowd and judges to clinch the title of Mr. Continental International 2019 for Guam, the release states. Jared will be returning to Guam later this month after a round of public appearances in the Philippines.

This is the first time Guam's delegate has won the title, the release states.
