THE SCORE

Severino rejoins Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — Pitcher Luis Severino was activated by the New York Yankees before Monday's series opener against Texas and is in position to make his first major league appearance in nearly two years.

Severino

"I will be like my first tenure here in 2015. It'll be the same emotion," Severino said. "But after I throw the first pitch, I think everything is going to come back like I used to be."
Yankees manager Aaron Boone plans to use the two-time All-Star out of the bullpen. New York began the day 1 1/2 games behind Toronto for the second AL wild-card spot.

"He could find himself in the highest-leverage situation or whatever and could evolve into a multi-inning role," Boone said. "We feel like we got a really good pitcher that we got to add to the mix today."

The 27-year-old right-hander had Tommy John surgery on Feb. 27, 2020. He made four minor league appearances totalling 10 2/3 innings for Tampa, Hudson Valley and Somerset, allowing four runs, five hits and one home run with three walks and 15 strikeouts.

Johnson leads US in the Ryder Cup

SHEBOYGAN, Wis. (AP) — Dustin Johnson helped the United States take a commanding lead in the Ryder Cup by doing something no American golfer has accomplished in over four decades — sweeping all four of his team matches.

Johnson went undefeated over two days at Whistling Straits to help the U.S. lead Europe 11-5 heading into Sunday's singles matches. He's the first American since Larry Nelson in 1979 to go 4-0 in team play.

"Everything's been working for Dustin," said Collin Morikawa, who teamed with Johnson on three of those victories.

The 37-year-old Johnson is the oldest player on a young U.S. roster and has provided occasional guidance to a team featuring six Ryder Cup rookies. Johnson entered this week with a 7-9 record in four previous Ryder Cup appearances.

"We are all close, so we all talk and share our experiences, especially guys who have played in them," Johnson said. "Yeah, I've definitely talked to (teammates), especially all the guys who haven't played before."

But the best way he's led is by example. He teamed up with Ryder Cup rookies in each of his victories.

Johnson and Morikawa won 3 and 2 over Paul Casey and Viktor Hovland in Friday's foursomes competition. They won in foursomes again Saturday 2 and 1 over Paul Casey and Tyrrell Hatton. And they followed that up Saturday afternoon by beating Ian Poulter and Rory McIlroy 4 and 3 in a best-ball matchup.

Johnson also joined forces with Xander Schauffele to win a Friday afternoon best-ball competition 2 and 1 over Bernd Wiesberger and Paul Casey.

Team USA's Dustin Johnson reacts on the third hole during a Ryder Cup foursomes match at the Whistling Straits Golf Course in Sheboygan, Wis. Sept. 25.

This represents a dramatic turnaround from his last Ryder Cup appearance. Johnson went 1-4 three years ago when the U.S. lost 17 1/2-10 1/2 outside of Paris. "The golf course suits me a little bit better here than Paris, for sure," Johnson said. "But yeah, I mean, that's just how it goes."
