School Psychologist Certification Requirements

To qualify for certification as a School Psychologist in Guam, an applicant must satisfy one (1) of the certification pathways established by the Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners (GBAHE) detailed below.

Pathway 1: National Certification

An applicant shall be eligible for certification upon providing evidence of current certification by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP).

Required Submissions:

- Current NASP Certification: A legible copy of the credential.
- Verification of Status: Documented proof that the certification is active and in good standing.
- Supplemental Documents: Any additional documentation required by the GBAHE.

Pathway 2: Education and Professional Experience

An applicant who does not currently hold a NASP certification may qualify by meeting all of the following criteria:

A. Graduate Education

- Credit Requirement: Completion of at least sixty (60) graduate semester credit hours from a regionally accredited college or university.
- Approved Degree Fields: School Psychology, or a closely related field approved by the Board.

B. Required Coursework

The applicant's graduate program must encompass formal coursework in the following twelve (12) areas:

	COURSEWORK DOMAINS
1	Psychoeducational Assessment
2	Psychological Testing
3	Assessment and Data Collection
4	Child and Adolescent Development

5	Learning Theory
6	Educational Psychology
7	Behavioral Assessment and Intervention
8	Counseling Techniques
9	Ethics and Professional Practice
10	Multicultural Practices
11	School-Based Consultation
12	Crisis Prevention and Intervention

C. Assessment Competencies

Applicants must demonstrate proficiency in administering, interpreting, and reporting standardized assessments commonly utilized in school psychology.

Submission Rule: Applicants must submit redacted psychological assessment reports (with all personally identifying information removed) demonstrating proficiency across the following five (5) domains:

- Intelligence and Cognitive Processing Assessments
- Academic Achievement Assessments
- Adaptive Behavior Assessments
- Social-Emotional Assessments
- Behavioral Observations and Functional Behavioral Assessments

Note: The Board reserves the right to require additional documentation or work samples to verify competency.

D. Professional Certifications

Applicants must possess at least two (2) professional certifications related to working with children and adolescents, approved by the GBAHE. Acceptable examples include, but are not limited to:

- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT)
- Neuropsychological Assessment
- Trauma-Informed Care
- Autism Spectrum Disorder Interventions
- Functional Behavior Assessment (FBA)

- Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS)
- Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA)

- Child and Adolescent Mental Health
- Executive Functioning Interventions

The Board shall determine the acceptability of any certifications not explicitly listed above.

E. Professional Experience

- Duration: A minimum of five (5) years of professional experience providing psychological services to children and adolescents within a school setting.
- Approved Employment Settings:
 - Public, private, or charter schools
 - Department of Education programs
 - Educational agencies approved by the Board
- Verification: Applicants must provide official verification from each employer documenting exact dates of employment, position held, and scope of duties performed.

Additional Board Requirements

The GBAHE may mandate the submission of any of the following items to verify eligibility:

1. Official graduate transcripts.
2. Formal verification of professional experience and certifications.
3. Three (3) professional references.
4. Criminal background clearance.
5. Any additional documentation deemed necessary by the Board.

Board Authority

The Guam Board of Allied Health Examiners retains absolute authority to:

- Evaluate all submitted education, training, certifications, and professional experience.
- Determine whether an applicant has substantially met the qualifications necessary for Guam certification.
- Request further documentation or explicit clarification from the applicant.
- Deny certification when an applicant fails to satisfy the minimum standards established by the Board or applicable Guam law.
