The complaint raised concerns about the authority of the Board to appoint inspectors and the necessity of the Board to adopt rules and regulations pursuant to the Administrative Adjudication Act. It was clarified that 10 GCA does give the Board the authority to appoint inspectors and carry out the duties and responsibilities as stated in 10 GCA. The Board is currently reviewing the rules and regulations to be revised, and considering additional rules and regulations to add information on inspectors. It was also suggested that the inspectors be required to take the Guam government ethics course, which was a requirement for Board members. The recommendation was	GBEP	0741	Tabled Unanimously Closed

Angelica Maria Blas J. Almogua stated that the applicant had initially applied as a registered technician, but to be considered certified, they needed to submit their NHA or PTCB certificate. However, if they wanted to proceed with the registered route, they needed to submit 1500 hours, but they had only submitted 520. The applicant asked if her W-2s would suffice as proof or whether another completed affidavit was necessary since she has been unable to contact her PIC to sign-off on her hours. A. Mariano stated that a W-2 does not provide evidence that she obtained experience as a pharmacy technician. The Board noted that the applicant had worked 1315.75 hours at a pharmacy, which, combined with previous work experience, totaled 2045.93 hours. Concerns were raised about the validity of W-2s as proof of training, emphasizing the importance of the affidavit of completed coursework. It was suggested that the individual could get the affidavit approved by their previous employer. The conversation also touched upon the individual's certification status with NHA or PTCB, confirming they had not yet taken the test. Considering the situation, the Board suggested that the applicant either take a national certification exam or submit additional documentation. The meeting concluded with a decision to allow the individual to submit any relevant documents for consideration. 2. Elaine Arcillas Motion to Approve: A. Mariano; 2nd: A.
